

TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Barbara Jordan – Mickey Leland
School of Public Affairs

ENVIRONMENTAL CAREER WORKER TRAINING PROGRAM

FREE 12 Week Training Program Starting January 2021

Texas Southern University invites you to apply for a career training program in the following areas: Basic Construction, Weatherization, Asbestos Abatement, Lead Abatement and Hazardous Waste Clean Up. After participating and receiving certification, participants will be assisted with job placement.

Training is offered in a 12-week classroom and hands-on type setting by dynamic instructors and trainers that are experts in their fields.

TYPE OF TECHNICAL TRAINING OFFERED

- Asbestos and Lead Abatement Worker State Certification
- 40 Hour - Basic Construction Skills with Weatherization
- 40 Hour - Hazwoper Certification
- OSHA 10
- Basic Plus & Confined Space (possible)
- TWIC (possible)
- 24 Hour - Community Emergency Response Training

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Must be a Houston area resident
- Must be at least 18 years of age
- Must be un/underemployed
- Must be drug-free
- Must have a GED or High School diploma
- Must read on an 8th-grade level
- Must speak English
- Candidates can come from any ethnic background and be male or female
- Criminal records are handled on a case-by-case basis

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Environmental Career Worker Training Program (ECWTP) is designed to train unemployed and/or underemployed individuals in the Houston area in the environmental services field. The training is free and provided at Texas Southern University and other select sites. For more information and to submit an application visit: www.tsu.edu/ecwtp

CONTACT INFORMATION

Ms. Bertina Carter
bertina.carter@tsu.edu 713-313-1406
Ms. Paulette Lynch
paulette.lynych@tsu.edu 713-313-7348

FUNDED THROUGH

National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences
Your Environment. Your Health.

